

A DAY LONG TO BE REMEMBERED.

The Old Veterans Enjoy a Big Barbecue at Wilson.

PATRIOTIC CITIZENS.

Wilson Is In The Front Rank of Progressive Towns. Is Growing Steadily.

[Staff Cor. State Chronicle.]

WILSON, N. C., June 17.—I wrote yesterday of the great and notable day here incident upon laying the corner stone of the monument to be erected to the memory of the Confederate dead. It is to be a beautiful shaft, and the liberal citizens of this place are going to erect a monument that will show how they honor the brave men who gave up their lives for the Lost Cause. When the monument is finished and unveiled, it is my purpose to prepare and print a sketch of the part Wilson county took in the war, and put in durable form a record of their achievements. To-day I have not the material at hand for this labor of love.

It is impossible for me to particularize further in regard to yesterday's big celebration except in a general way. Hot as it was, the magnificent body of soldiers bore themselves with true military bearing, and won deserved praise from the multitude of more than 7,000 people who were pleased by their drillings and military tactics. Long live the State Guard! No men in North Carolina have a stronger claim upon the gratitude of the State, and none are so ready to respond to any patriotic call.

It would be impossible to find a handsomer set of men that the mounted marshals headed by chivalric CAPT. SAM. HODGES. One good feature of the selection was that every one of them had seen actual service in the late war, and were veterans indeed. They looked every inch like heroes of war; and they are every inch heroes of peace. The marshals were:

CAPT. SAM. HODGES, Chief.
CAPT. E. M. NADAL.
CAPT. J. W. CROWELL.
CAPT. E. M. PACE.
CAPT. H. M. WARREN.

If there should ever come another war (which God forbid) there was one man in the procession yesterday whose military bearing and genius would give him place among the great generals. It is LIEUT. COL. JNO. F. BRUTON, who was the colonel-commanding.

A big barbecue was given to the old veterans, and was greatly enjoyed by them. Their ranks are thinning as the years go by, and in the procession I missed not a few of the true old soldiers who in other days were wont to march with their comrades on such occasions.

One of the most attractive objects in the parade was the Phoenix Fire Company, under command of Chief R. G. BRIGGS and assistants ROSELLE STEVENS and J. P. BULLOCK. The engine and apparatus shone resplendent in the summer sun and the whole "rig" made a fine appearance.

The whole town was in holiday attire. Flags and bunting graced the leading building houses. The Wilson Warehouse (an immense auditorium) was decorated and beautified and an audience of upwards of 3,000 were comfortably seated—that is if any place could be comfortable on such a hot day. Cool water was furnished in abundance. At the warehouse the following affable gentlemen acted as ushers:

JOHN J. GAY, JOHN CORBETT, W. F. WOODARD, J. D. BARDIN, EDGAR R. GRAY, JOSEPH REID and FLOYD DAVIS.

Wilson's greatest attraction is its innate hospitality and its "altogether" cordiality with which it greets strangers and visitors. This was particularly noticeable. The citizen-soldiers were royally treated, and the following special order shows how this hospitality was appreciated:

HEAD QUARTERS OF MILITARY,
WILSON, N. C. JUNE 17,
SPECIAL ORDER No. 2.

Through the kindness and courtesy of the good citizens of Wilson, Company D of the 1st Regiment, and companies A, C, D and F of the Second Regiment, N. C. S. G., are assembled to-day at a public celebration held in honor of the laying of the foundation for a monument in memory of the Confederate dead, those whom we are taught to remember with love and reverence as the brave defenders of the principles and of the Country they loved so well, and who have left to the younger generation of the South, an honored heritage to maintain.

History teaches us that in the days of old it was considered an honor to be a Roman soldier, so we of the present era should hold in the same esteem the noble defenders of the Confederates cause, both living and dead.

To Colonel Sam. Hodges, Chief Marshal, Col. John F. Bruton, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, Company F., of the Second Regiment and the progressive people of Wilson, we wish to extend our sincere thanks for the kindness and attention shown us and assure them that we shall always remember with feelings of pleasure and pride the part we have taken in the ceremonies of the day.

By order of Col. W. C. JONES.
DUV. FRENCH,
1st Lieut. and Act. Adj't.

This is one of the most prosperous towns in the State. It sells every year over 20,000 bales of cotton, and up to last year its cotton trade constituted its chief business. Two years ago and last year the farmers went very largely into the tobacco business, made fine crops and realized good profits. Two large tobacco warehouses have been erected—the Wilson and the Planters. Messrs. PACE & WOODARD are proprietors of the Wilson, and Mr. JOE REID is the hustling auctioneer. It was the first warehouse here, and it has been managed with such energy and business ability as to be in a flourishing condition. The other warehouse—the Planters is managed by T. M. Anderson & Son. The past was its first season. It did a thriving business and has a bright future. Four new prize houses are in process of construction and will be ready by the opening of the season. This will give six prize houses.

Over 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco was sold in this market last year—and that was the second year the town has handled tobacco.

The county has a record that is hard to beat. By wise management, it presents a record that reflects great credit upon the magistrates and commissioners and shows the thrift of the people. The county is out of debt—has $3,000 in the treasury—and its tax levy is only 17 cents on the $100 worth of property. A friend here tells me that this is the lowest tax-rate in the State, and I believe that it is. If not, what county can show so good a record?

—IT IS THE BEST.—

One dealer writes to the manufacturer as follows:

"We take great pleasure in assuring you that we are selling to all the principal contractors and builders in our city, and shipping a good deal to neighboring towns, with entire satisfaction to all. We consider it the best lime in our market. We find the barrels larger and in better condition than other brands we have sold, and have never had to pay out a cent for cooperation on your barrels."

Another writes: "We have been handling your 'Riverton' Lime for the last four years at the rate of from 3,000 to 10,000 barrels per year, and consider it the best we have ever handled. It stacks quickly and is free from core, lumps and specks. For general use there is none better."

Another writes: "We have handled thousands of barrels of your Centennial Lime in the last six or seven years, and take pleasure in recommending it to the public. It stacks up well and quick, is very white and free from impurities."

SALE OF LOTS.

One week ago we commenced the sale of building lots in Northeast Raleigh, on the monthly payment plan, or allowing the purchaser to pay one-fourth the price cash and carry the balance as long as forty years at 6 per cent.

This proposition astonished the natives, and when they saw the lots and prices they were still more astonished. The result was that we sold more building lots last week than we ever sold in Raleigh in the same length of time. There were only ninety-five of them—they will be all gone in a few days more. The purchasers are among the best people of Raleigh. We are not selling to any but good people. Let us know, and we will wait on you instantly. Don't look at them unless you want to buy; for you can't help it when you once see them and find how low they are offered.
